HOME FOLKS DRAW LEAGUE CLASS FOR FIRST GAMES ON WEDNESDAY AND THE CLASS IS NOT STEERAGE

WITH the arrival of both of our big league ball clubs from the South today everything is set for the grand opening of the season the day after tomorrow, which is another way of referring to Wednesday. The Athletics will perk up a bit on the home lot to be in shape to entertain the New York Yankees, and the Phils, after lifting their new uniforms out of Jake Gray's window, will journey to Brooklyn for the first heat.

Brooklyn Cannot Be Overlooked

BROOKLYN looms up as the big noise in the Heydler circuit at the present writing. This is because of that wonderful pitching staff, consisting of Jeff Pfeffer, Leon Cadore, Al Mamarr, Babe Marquard and Sherrard Smith. Clarence Mitchell also is doing good work and a youngster named Mohart looks like a future phenom.

Baseball cannot help but have a wonderful season. The races in both leagues will be close and exciting, and the fans throughout the country are all steamed and highly excited over the approaching battle-royal.

Down South the game was more popular than ever before. In Jacksonville some 7000 fans and fanettes paid $1 to $2 to see the double-header between the Yankees and Reds and Washington and Brooklyn. Crowds of 2000 and 3000 were quite common in the smaller towns, and in Palm Beach, when the Yanks and Reds played on the lawn near the hotel, late comers couldn't see a thing unless they climbed trees.

Everything points to a big year, financially and otherwise. Last year and the year before no one knew what would happen because of the war and the after effects. The fans also were worried because they were told they must either work or fight. Now they are doing neither. Too busy spending their high wages.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

JIMMY MURPHY, of West Philadelphia, wants to be among those in line for a match with Lew Tendler this summer. In fact, a Murphy-Tendler contest would carry the greatest of local interest. Murph has been under the careful training eye of Adam Ryan all winter, ever since the West Philadelphia's honorable discharge from the army, and the "professor" believes that Jesus is prepared for a session with Tendler or any of the other leading lightweights clamoring for a chance at the title in that division.

Dr. Wharton a Great Line Coach

COACH HEISMAN, of Penn., made no mistake when he asked Dr. Buck Wharton to issue a call to the football men for spring practice next Monday and assist in tutoring the line-men. Doctor Wharton was not included in the list of coaches this winter, but that oversight apparently has been remedied. The doctor is the best line coach in the country, bar none. He knows more about that style of play than any three men, and should be retained at Penn at all costs. Heisman could not pick a more valuable assistant.

No-Smoking Rule Is Popular

THE no-smoking rule which now is being enforced in the boxing clubs is a good one, and Director of Public Safety Cortelyou deserves great credit for insisting that all clubs abide by the rule. Saturday night we attended the show at the National, the first we have seen in seven weeks, and it was a wonderful sight. Those in the back row could see the boxers, the lights burned clearly in the smokes and the whole place looked as if it had been scrubbed clean. Everybody enjoyed himself, and it's too bad the rule wasn't put into effect years ago. Still, it must be remembered that this is the first time Mr. Cortelyou has been director of public safety.

California Wins Track Meet

Berkeley, Calif., April 12.—The University of California defeated the University of Southern California track team, 91 to 81, today in a Southern California meet here for matches with Los Angeles. Frankie Maguire of the latter school won the 100-yard dash in 9.5 seconds in the century, but a checkup showed that he had crossed the official time. Three stowaways had timed him at the latter figure and two at 9.3.

BUSY WEEK AHEAD FOR WEST PHILLY

Ball Club Has Three Games Scheduled—Track, Crew, Tennis and Soccer Men Active

By PAUL PREP Athletes at West Philadelphia High School are to have a strenuous week. Besides having three big ball games on track, crew, tennis and soccer men at the West Philadelphia school are getting out for some action.

On Wednesday the ball team will play its first league game with South Philadelphia High at Kingessing Avenue Center. Friday Northeast High will be the opposition at Northeast field, and on Saturday Haverford School will be played at Haverford.

The probable line-up of the varsity will be: Koons or Stewart, pitcher; Bogart, catcher; Bratton, first base; Bennett, second base; Smith, shortstop; Welch, third base; Powers, left field; Fred Dietz, center field; and Sweet, right field.

Those who will be on the bench ready for play are Weaver, Mower, Wood, Berry, Cannon and Cook. Schuyler Ench, captain of the cross-country team for two years and winner of the senior hill-and-dale championship will not compete this spring. Each red anchor on the champion mile relay team in last season's spring "quads," capturing the quarter-mile and mile races.

Fifty candidates have reported to Manager Redding for the relay teams. They will not complete this spring. Each red anchor on the champion mile relay team in last season's spring "quads," capturing the quarter-mile and mile races.

Promising athletes with sprinting and distance experience who reported are: Frazier, Patterson, Keplinger, Shell, Zibele, Zerr, Conover, Craft, Dutton, Carroll and Oldfield.

Crew candidates will resume practice this week. Those showing up well and from whom the eight will be chosen are Fenster, Medholt, Abbott, Hearn, Brownson, Gordon, Heintz, Archdeacon, Binswanger, Cowell, Withrow, Myers, Bent and Hadden.

The tennis squad has been practicing for the last month, and looms as a strong contender for the championship. The veterans of last season's team are: Captain Bramall, Earl Wood and Charles Watson. The withdrawal of Radnor and Germantown Academy from the league prevented the team opening there this week. Home games will be played at the Germantown Cricket Club.

DIAZ STABLE NOW AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Cuban's String Headed by Fleet Three-Year-Old Colt Blue Wrack

Havre de Grace, Md., April 12.—William McDaniel has arrived from Havana with the strong stable of A. H. Diaz, the Cuban horseman who bought liberally in the thoroughbred yearling markets of the United States last season and the season before and recently won the $10,000 National handicap at Havre with the Wrack colt Blue Wrack.

Blue Wrack is in the string McDaniel has brought from the island republic for racing in Maryland this spring, and the first start hereabouts of the National Handicap winner will be in the $5000 Chesapeake stakes, a race of one mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds, that will be run here on the 24th. With Blue Wrack in the Diaz stable are Grayson, a son of Hessian and Dorothy Gray, that looks like a three-year-old of class; Just Fanny and Azarite, winning two-year-old fillies of last season, and a raft of promising two-year-olds.

Mulford Is Defeated

The baseball team representing the Tradesmen's National Bank defeated the Philadelphia Athletics in a game played at the latter club's home on Sunday, April 11. The score was a tie up to the eighth, when the bankers put over the winning counter. Score: Philadelphia Athletics, 2 to 0; Tradesmen's National Bank, 2 to 0.

Clubs Weakened by Injuries

THE war map has changed slightly since the early days of the season. Some of the clubs are not so strong as was first supposed and others have gained considerable strength. A notable example is Pittsburgh. When I saw the club four weeks ago everything was lovely. Manager Gibson had high hopes of finishing near the top, and now see what happened? Terry refused to report and the star shortstop was sold to the Cubs. Barbara was shifted to short and played well until he struck his chin in front of a fan's ball. He now has a busted jaw and will be on the sidelines for some time.

But the most serious thing is the continued absence of Walter Schmidt, the star catcher. Walter has been holding out for more money and Dreyfus is said to have turned him down cold. According to reports, Gibson insisted that Barney sign the catcher at any price, and when the owner refused George is said to have spoken harshly to his boss, telling him where to go. If there is a break between the manager and owner at this time, a couple of days before the season opens, the Pirates will be lucky if they finish in August. Unless something happens soon, it looks as if the ball club is all wet.

Cincinnati also has been weakened. The pitchers are not in shape and George is said to have bled on the wrist in Jacksonville, is out with a broken hand. A kid named Meyer, who once played with Notre Dame, is stationed on first, but cannot be called a finished player. The Reds slipped several notches last week.

STILL, this is what makes the game interesting. If you could pick the winners before the season

NEW BOXING RULES FOR JERSEY STATE

Participants in Main Contests Must Be on Ground 24 Hours Before Matches

Atlantic City, April 12.—New rules to further protect patrons were adopted yesterday at a meeting of the state Boxing Commission in Atlantic City. The game will doubtless receive a great boost as a result.

The commissioners are seeking to guard against any eleventh-hour disappointments in shows and put a heavy penalty on offenders by their action yesterday. It is provided that any boxer receiving $150 or more must put up 25 per cent of his guarantee in advance to assure his fulfillment of the contract.

Chairman John S. Smith of Atlantic City, announced that the clubs of the state were following out to the letter the terms of the commission that smoking be prohibited at fights. This action was urged at the request of women patrons. Action was also authorized against second-rate boxers who coached their boxers and became unduly boisterous. Boxers will be disqualified if their men in the corner continue their tactics after the warning.

In anticipation of the signing by Governor Edwards of the twelve-round boxing bill, Chairman Smith announced that no club in the state would be permitted to stage twelve-round fights until May 1. This would enable the commissioners to make any changes in the regulations that may be required. All licenses will be renewed on that date. Now there are twenty-six clubs operating in New Jersey.

The boxing commission is in receipt of a protest against the scheduled match next week between Lew Tendler and Packer Hommey, of New York, at the Lyceum Sporting Club, at Paterson. It is considered by the commission as dirty and farcical. The commissioners will investigate the allegations and a report will be made at the meeting tomorrow in Paterson.

The commission is considering the reinstatement of Al Reich, a New York heavyweight, who was barred for six months as a result of a fight with Eddie Moran in the last round. Reich was in a two-round battle and had him going in the last round. ATHLETIC SQUADS PRACTICE TODAY

Regulars Arrive From Baltimore, While Yanigans Come From Richmond

The two Athletic squads arrived in town yesterday and preparations for the opening game of the American League season on Wednesday will proceed at once. This afternoon practice will be held at Shibe Park, but no game will be played.

Danny Murphy and Tom Shibe were in charge of the second team, which came directly from Richmond. The first team did not reach the city until late in the night. Manager Mack stopped off at Baltimore and came up with the regulars.

Little is known of Connie's plans, although this week will undoubtedly see the release of several young pitchers. Emmet McKnew, a young outfielder from California, was sent to the Moline club, of the Three I League, for his negotiating in being. Noter here for matches with Joe Borrelli, Frankie Maguire or the other 100-pounders in the second three parts.

Another match clinched by Willie Ed was in that between Frankie Murray, a cousin of Battling Murray, with Little Jeff at Harrisburg, ten rounds, April 19.

Marcus Williams is anxious to show Lew Tendler that the Auditorium A. A. before the close of the regular boxing season. He plans an elimination tournament between local lightweights to select a logical opponent for the southpaw ace. The first of these matches will be out on tomorrow night, when Frankie Clark and Jack Toland meet. Clark is a 112-pounder and Toland is a hard hitter.

John McLaughlin has been matched by Willie Edwards to meet Johnny Weigant at Lancaster, ten rounds, April 19. Semifinal to the Clark-Toland match tomorrow night at the Auditorium will be Harry Smith who is to remain boxing after a playoff of several years under the wing of Billy Silverman. He will take on Joe Richards, Southern California, other bouts: Kid Patillo vs. George Christian, Toughy Dugan vs. Eddie McCarry and Tommy Ackers vs. Bobby Reed.

Tommy Finn, a 130-pounder, arranged to prominence as a knockerout last week when he stopped Jack Dawson in four rounds. Frankie Cobb wants to match Finn with the best of ten his weight in the city. Carl Tremaine, of Cleveland, is matched to meet Earl Puryear at Alhambra Theatre in Baltimore Friday night. Cal Delaney and Eddie Fitzsimmons will box twelve rounds in Canton, O., tonight. Alvie Miller, star featherweight of Jimmy Dunn's stable, has been matched for a ten-round bout with Champion Johnny Kilbane at Lorain on April 21.

Brian Downer, the Columbus welterweight, may meet either Augie Ratner or Frankie Maguire at the National on April 21.

Nathan Ehrlich, former lightweight boxer of this city, is now making his home in New York. He is back in the boxing game as manager of Frankie Nutter, a middleweight, who is negotiating to bring Nutter here for matches with Joe Borrelli, Frankie Maguire or the other 100-pounders in the second three parts.
